

HOW TO SPEAK A FOREIGN LANGUAGE?

Listening - Put the sentences in the correct order (Technique 4 - 09:35 - 11:20)

Speaker: Sid Efromovich

Source: www.youtube.com/watch?v=-WLHr1\_EVtQ

- A) For example, it's easy to ask for directions, but how about receiving them? Or even better giving directions?
- B) And it's great because you don't depend on anything or anyone to get your practice.
- C) It allow you to find wherever you have a gap in your knowledge, because you're having a conversation on both ends.
- D) I remember when I was learning Chinese and I would haggle and like try to get two yen more to get that wonderful dumpling and get a discount.
- E) So the shower conversations force you to have both sides of the conversation.
- F) Michael Phelps is known to visualize every single one of his races several times over before jumping in the water.