War – Bob Marley

Until the philosophy which holds one race

..... and another

Is finally and discredited and abandoned

Everywhere is war, me say war

That until there is no longer first class

And second class of any nation

Until the colour of a man's

Is of no more than the colour of his eyes

Me say war

That until the basic are equally

Guaranteed to all, without regard to race

Dis a war

That until that day

The dream of peace, world citizenship

Rule of international morality

Will remain in but a fleeting illusion

To be, but never attained

Now everywhere is war, war

And until the ignoble and unhappy

That hold our brothers in Angola, in Mozambique,

South Africa sub-human bondage

Have been, utterly destroyed

Well, everywhere is war, me say war

War in the East, war in the West

War up North, war down South

War, war, rumours of war

And until that day, the continent

Will not know, we Africans will fight

We find it necessary and we know we shall win

As we are confident in the victory

Of good over evil, good over evil, good over evil
Good over evil, good over evil, good over evil
