

FOOD SHARING

Activity 1: Lead-in

- Do you ever buy second-hand things? What? Why/Why not?
- Which of the things below would you get second-hand? Why?
- Which ones would you never buy second-hand? Why?

Activity 2: Brainstorm

- What do you usually do with your leftovers?

Throw away – Eat next day – Give somebody else – Wait till they go bad –
Make another meal out of them – Feed a pet – Compost them – Freeze them Activity 3: Discuss – What do you think foodsharing means? Use expressions from activity 2.

Food sharing =

Activity 4: Watch the video. What do food savers do with their leftovers? Choose from the expressions given in Activity 2.

Activity 5: Watch the video. Mark the statements below T (true) or F (false).

Video: Al Jazeera English

bit.ly/Foodsharing_video

They collect food what would otherwise go to waste. T / F

Their primary goal is to help poor people. T / F

There are many strict rules that food savers have to follow. T / F

The food sharing service is available in German-speaking countries. T / F

Rafael regrets that food sharing has only a local impact. T / F

Shops and restaurants but not individuals can deliver leftovers. T / F

Activity 6: Discuss

1. What's your opinion on the food sharing service?
2. Could it be popular in your town or city?
3. Would you register as a leftovers giver or taker or both? Why?